

Shiloh Museum Events

Through January 22, 2011. All Dressed Up, an exhibit of men's, women's, and children's finery.

Through September 18. Answering the Call, an exhibit on the history of the Springdale Fire Department.

Through August 21. Carl Smith's Fayetteville, a personal look at a town and a family through one man's camera lens.

July 21, noon. "What Brought You Here?", reflections on living in northwest Arkansas by members of LifeWriters.

July 31, 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Living History Workshop. Have you ever wanted to be someone else? If you like history, pretending to be someone else, and dressing up in clothes from days gone by, you won't want to miss this opportunity.

Living history is a field of interpretation where the past is brought to life. Living history professionals Ian Beard, Doug Kidd, and Billy Nations will teach you how to do research, develop characters and presentations, and work with the public.

Cost is $15, which includes lunch. Workshop attendees will be eligible for apprentice level certification by the Arkansas Living History Association. To receive the certification you must be a current member of ALHA; annual dues are $12.

August 7, 2:00 p.m. "The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly: Moths in the Ozarks," a Summer Saturday program by Lori Spencer, author of Arkansas Butterflies and Moths. Kids craft activity included!

August 8, 2:00 p.m. Genealogy Jeopardy, a game show featuring local history and genealogy facts and trivia, presented by members of the Washington County Arkansas Genealogical Society.

August 18, noon. A program on the diaries of Madison County farmer Milton Cooper, by Shiloh Museum outreach coordinator Susan Young.

August 24-December 18. Down by the Old Mill Stream, a photo exhibit featuring Northwest Arkansas grist mills.

September 11, 10:00 a.m.- 2:00 p.m. 33rd Ozark Quilt Fair, with antique and new quilts for show and sale.

September 15, noon. "Madison County's Rich Sports History," a program by Kyle Mooty, editor of the Madison County Record.

October 4-March 26, 2011. The Music of Our Lives, an exhibit on the role of music in the lives of Ozark folks.

October 20, noon. A program on Ozark folk music by Professor Chalon Ragsdale of the University of Arkansas Department of Music.

November 6, 2:00 p.m. "The Mountain Dulcimer in the Ozarks," a hands-on workshop by Bob Madison, who will discuss dulcimer origins, repertoire, and migration to Arkansas. Participants will have an opportunity to learn the noter and drone style of playing.

November 17, noon. A program on Madison County history by Joy Russell, president of the Madison County Genealogical and Historical Society.

November 20, 2:00 p.m. Program and book signing by acclaimed nature photographer Tim Ernst.

December 4. "Holidays are for the Birds!" Join local bird experts Joe Neal and Lynn Sciumbato for a couple of programs on our feathered friends. At 11:00 a.m., Joe will present a slide program on "Winter Birds in Northwestern Arkansas." At 1:00 p.m., wildlife rehabilitator Lynn Sciumbato and some of the residents at Morning Star Wildlife Rehabilitation Center will show and tell us about life as a bird.

December 21-April 16, 2011. Bumper Crop: The Apple Industry in Northwest Arkansas, a photo exhibit examining the rise and fall of the local apple industry.

07/01/2010

Shiloh Museum of Ozark History • 118 W. Johnson Avenue, Springdale • 750-8165

Open Monday - Saturday, 10 am to 5 pm • Free Admission • www.springdalear.gov/shiloh